Rugby Players On Board Moana

The Wallabies should be here today on the Moana en route to Australia. Their stay in this city will be too short to allow of a game of Rugby being played. This is a great pity now that the English game is catching on in California so strongly. Probably by this time next year the game will be played all over the States, and Hawaii surely must fall into line. Teams from the mainland will be traveling back and forth between Australia, England, and New Zealand, and we in Honolulu won't have a look-in on a game if everybody does not buck up a bit.

The only way to turn out competent Rugby players is to have the game played in the schools. In New Zealand and Australia youngsters of six and seven years of age may be seen in every backyard during the winter, rushing and running for "tries" with a lump of old rag in lieu of a ball. The kids grow up with the game, and the whole science of the play becomes second nature to them.

The danger of Rugby football is just sufficient to add a zest to the game. A few accidents have happened now and again, such as breaking a collar-bone, etc., but, taking it all around—the writer played and watched the game for at least twelve years, and knows what he is scribbling about—Rugby is a perfectly safe and square game for any boy who is really a boy and not a mollycoddle, to play.

The Wallabies have been very successful in their tour of England, California, and Canada. The "All Black" team of New Zealand certainly did better, but the Maoriland has always turned out the best footballers under the Southern Cross. It is probably a matter of climate, for in warmer Australia cricket flourishes better than in the Dominion of N. Z. Still, of late years, Australian football has picked up a lot, and this is probably due to the visits of English and New Zealand teams becoming more frequent.

It is to be hoped that the schools of Hawaii will fall into line and introduce the most popular kind of football that is rapidly becoming universal.

SHARK-FISHING AND SUCKER-CATCHING

L. W. Nute of Boston and a couple of others had a great day's sport amongst the sharks yesterday. No less than five of the sea monsters were landed, and the number would have been much larger only for some pilikia with the harpoons. The shark fishing party went out in Young brothers' launch and the usual cadaver was towed along behind. The sharks were very plentiful, in fact a real school of them was present. Mr. Nute, who is a prominent horseman on the east coast, is going to stay over in Honolulu for some time. Last night he remarked: "Shark-fishing is a new sport to me and I must say it is very exciting—much more so than horse-racing. In this shark business the fish gets a run for his money—that is if the harpoon gets free. On the other hand, as racing goes in California just now, they harpoon a man and he never gets a run at all." Mr. Nute is very plain-spoken on the subject of crooked horse-racing, which has just about killed the game in the States. "Why, they 'frame up' races there, one owner with another, and then they both do the 'double-cross' act and someone falls in the mud. The game is dying fast in California and sixty days more will see the finish. Most of the owners and bookmakers make for Mexico, Canada, and Australia. But they will kill the game there just as they have done in the States. They want to hog all the money in sight, and are not content with fair profits. Why, some of the race tracks, with only a six weeks' season show 300 per cent. profit! It was a skin game that laid the golden egg is about dead."

This from a man who followed the game all the time is pretty plain speaking, and should show the casual race-goer how and what he is up against when he goes out with a wad in his hand to play the ponies.

Special Train Arranged For

The special train in connection with the Haleiwa Marathon race has been arranged for and tickets are now on sale at Wall, Nichols Co., where Mr. Vierra is handling the necessary pasteboards. The tickets are selling very rapidly and anyone requiring one had better hurry up, as the train will surely be crowded.

The special will leave the depot soon as the race has got under way. All arrangements for a good start have been made from Aala Park, and the hand will be in evidence. The cyclists will start on their long journey at 7:30 a. m. and the peds five minutes later will tackle their tough contract.

Owners of automobiles who take an interest in athletics are invited to kookua the runners by keeping room for at least one person in case any runner caves in through lack of condition. Honolulu folk are noted for their good-nature, and it surely only needs to be brought to auto-owners' notice to assure that all runners will be taken care of in the event of accident.

McFadden Has New Puppi To Train

Jack McFadden has taken "Kid" Terry under his paternal wing and is going to make a world-beater of the lad. The "Kid" is already showing improvement under Mac's tuition and in the course of a few weeks should be a match for most lads of his weight.

Things at Fort Shafter are very lively now. Quite a number of scrappers and near-boxers are in training.

All-Schools Track Meet March 28

On March 28 the Oahu College, High Schools, and Kamehameha School will meet on the Alexander Field in athletic competition. This matter was settled at a meeting held at the Y. M. C. A. last night, which was largely attended.

A first place will count five points, a second three points, and a third one point. Each team may enter as many men as they like, but there must be three to make a start. The high hurdle race will not come off, a 220-yards low hurdle being put on the program. There will be a relay race of half a mile for four men teams and only first place will count.

Drawings will be made for the trial heats. Low man in each case takes choice of position and runs in first heat. The higher numbers take order of precedence according to the lowness of their numbers. First and second men in each heat will take part in the finals.

The order of track events will be: 100-yard heats, mile run, 100-yard finals, 220 hurdles heats, intermission of fifteen minutes, 220 hurdles finals, 440 run, 220-yard dash heats, intermission of fifteen minutes, 220-yard finals, half mile run, half mile relay.

Field events to be pulled off simultaneously with track events. High jump; shot put, 12 pounds; broad jump; hammer throw, 12 pounds, and pole vault.

Basket Ball At Alliolani College

Alliolani College has formed an athletic club with the intention of putting a basketball team in the field. A junior school league will soon be started and the Alliolanis are determined to have a good team in the competition. All the boys take a great interest in the game and some of them already are fairly good players. If hard work and strict practice counts for anything the Kaimuki lads will make good in the league games.

The officers of the club are: President, W. Carter; vice president, Foster Robinson; manager, H. Broderick; captain, Frank Stillman; vice captain, En Pul.

The first basketball game will be played in the near future.

Senate Committee on Judiciary reports Roosevelt "guilty," but gets sudden attack of cold feet before charge is filed.

San Francisco importers and jobbers prepare to join in protest against the proposed duty on coffee and tea.

Ironman McCollough is coming along fine, and will shake Mr. Sharkey up a bit on Saturday night.

Sullivan, of course, is the star out at Shafter, but all the boys are watched with great interest and every clean duck or cross-counter is cheered to the echo.

Smith has eased up from active training, there being nothing in sight for him. Still he always keeps in fair condition and is then able to quickly "top off" if anything in the night line crosses the horizon.

Reuter Leaves For Pueblo Team

Dick Reuter has been signed up by the Pueblo team of Colorado and will leave for the Coast on the 16th of this month. Reuter will be much missed by the local fans, for he is a first-class pitcher and a trier all the time. Still, all hope he makes good in Colorado, and there seems to be no doubt that he will. He is a heady pitcher and has done excellent work for Honolulu at all times. Of course we all know that Reuter will return some day—they all do—so it is only a case au revoir and not good-bye. It is to be hoped that the cold climate will not trouble Dick, for then he will sure surprise the Puebloites.

Cricket Team For England Leaves

The Australian team of cricketers who have just started for England differs greatly from the team that passed through Honolulu a couple of years ago. Many new men have joined the combination, and some of the old reliables have dropped out. Carkeek, O'Connor, McCartney, and Ramsford are new players. Hopkins and Duff, who both have made at least three trips as representatives of Australia, are left out of the team.

In a match played a few weeks ago between the eleven for England, and the Rest of Australia, the big fellows scored 202 and 269 for two wickets. "Rest" 311 and 159—the Australian eleven thus winning by eight wickets and one run.

Hopkins who had been thrown off the All Australia team, played with the other bunch and scored 91 runs not out! This is rather a slur on the selectors of the team for England, and it is to be hoped that the popular "Hopple" will be reinstated. Victor Trumper, the world-renowned batsman of course is on the team. Lately playing for his own club, he scored 195 runs in 195 minutes. Now then, Anderson, get busy and try for that record.
